The exemption shall end when the use of the Unit as the residence of the buyer (or of the buyer's employees), as provided for above, which satisfied the prerequisites for qualification as a Qualified Employee or Qualified Employer, ends other than as a result of a sale of the Unit; at which time the transfer fee shall be immediately due and payable.

Procedure For Seeking Exemption From Transfer Fee
Procedures for the qualification of Qualified Employees and/or Qualified Employers hereunder, and the manner of granting the priorities herein established in favor of Qualified Employees and Qualified Employers shall be as follows:

If a proposed buyer or the owner seeks to claim exemption from the transfer fee provided herein, before a conveyance or transfer of a fee interest in the Unit, the proposed buyer or owner shall have submitted to Eagle County a Qualification Package, together with the applicable processing fee established by the County, and shall have received the County's determination of the proposed buyer's exemption status. Eagle County's written acceptance of the transfer as exempt shall be deemed conclusive of the exemption's applicability to the transfer.

A "Qualification Package" shall be the assemblage of documents necessary for submittal to Eagle County providing proof of the proposed buyer's status as a Qualified Employee or Qualified Employer. The Qualification Package as of the date hereof is attached hereto as Appendix A, but it may be changed in the sole discretion of Eagle County.

If a buyer has not been accepted as exempt from the fee before the close of the sale of the Unit, the buyer will be conclusively deemed not to be a Qualified Employee or a Qualified Employer and, therefore, not exempt.

These restrictions and covenants shall be enforceable by the Board or its designee by any appropriate equitable or legal action, including but not limited to specific performance, mandamus, abatement, injunction, or forcible entry and detainer.
The remedies explicitly provided herein are cumulative, and not exclusive, of all other remedies provided by law.

Invalidation of any one of or part of one of the covenants or restrictions contained in this declaration by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other part or provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

No claim of waiver, consent or acquiescence with respect to any provision hereof shall be valid against Eagle County except on the basis of a written instrument executed by Eagle County.

Eagle County may in its sole discretion assign the benefits and delegate the responsibilities hereunder to a non-profit private entity or public agency organized or operating in whole or in part to provide housing programs in Eagle County. Except for the identification of the beneficiary of these covenants, conditions and restrictions, wherever reference is made to Eagle County in provisions hereinabove (but not in provisions hereinbelow), it means and includes such successors or assigns.

These covenants, conditions and restrictions shall expire on December 31, 2048, unless extended, at the sole option of the Board of County Commissioners, for an additional period, not to exceed fifty (50) years, after public hearing and comment on the proposed extension.

Eagle County expressly reserves the right to terminate this Restrictive Covenant as to the Property, after public hearing and comment on the proposed termination, upon recording a Termination Agreement in the Official Records of the Clerk and Recorder of Eagle County executed by the Board of County Commissioners.

Except for complete termination by the Board of County Commissioners, the restrictions and covenants herein may not be amended without the consent of both the owners of the Property and the Board.
